Let Men Be Men

Let Women Be Women

Scott Graham & Cass Harman Susie Graham & Sarah Harman

These classes will utilize the Student Ministry Room & 401

In every generation, there is a desperate need for a Biblical understanding of the roles designed for men and women, yet few churches teach about these roles. In our current culture, the roles of men and women are becoming increasingly muddled by the philosophies of the world. In the last several years the terms "gender identity" and "gender confusion" have become commonplace. Thankfully, in the book of Titus God provides direct instructions that will bring clarity to help us navigate these troublesome trends. These companion books came out of two series on Titus taught by Chris Mueller while serving at John MacArthur's Church. We strongly encourage our students and parents, young adults, husbands and wives to consider joining us.

2 Timothy, John Ray Lutzo, Monty Vernon Rm 106

Ray Lutzo will lead this class in completing an inductive study of 2 Timothy using the observation - interpretation - application Bible study method. Following that, Monty Vernon will begin an inductive study of the Gospel of John using the Life Guide Bible study from IVP Press with an emphasis on understanding and application. Class time is used primarily for study of the Word and prayer for requests shared by those in the class.

Hebrews John Wilkinson, Geraud Moyers, Shane Tilson 105

The letter to the Hebrews is a tribute to Jesus and an encouragement to persecuted Christians. As we study the book of Hebrews we will learn that Jesus is incomparable and of the spiritual danger of turning our backs on Jesus.

Isaiah Dr. Peter Gentry Rm 202

This class will be a brief overview of the prophecy of Isaiah with attention to how we should read and understand prophetic texts. Isaiah's description of salvation for Israel and for the world moves from a corrupt Jerusalem in the old creation to a new Zion in the new creation — the most expansive perspective of any author in the Old Testament. Here we will seek a firmer foundation for our understanding of prophecies of the coming Messiah. Participants will be encouraged to ask questions as we study together.

Judges & Ruth Mark Godbey Rm 112

This class will conclude its study of the book of Judges and then move onto studying Ruth using quarterly material from Scripture Press. The lecture method of teaching is used, however, questions and comments are always welcome.

Discipleship Process Pastor Jason Bakker Rm 111

This class includes several sessions on each of the four aspects of ABC's Discipleship Process: KNOW, GROW, GO, & SOW. All attendees of ABC are encouraged to go through this class at some point. However, newcomers and those who have yet to become partners in ministry (formerly "members") of ABC are especially encouraged to attend.
